Nationalist Warships Drive Off Red Gunboats at Kaoteng Island

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist warships teamed up with land-based artillery to drive off a flotilla of Communist gunboats and smaller vessels which stabbed at tiny Kaoteng Island under cover of darkness, it was reported today.

The reports said Nationalist warships intercepted a heavy concentration of Communist vessels near Kaoteng, in the Matsu group, shortly after dusk Friday night. The Nationalist vessels illuminated the area with aerial flares and heavy gun duels erupted.

For almost three hours Nationalist and Communist naval vessels exchanged gunfire, with land artillery on both sides joining in. Official reports described the firing as "furious."

Eisenhower Relaxes At His Farm Home

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer
GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower relaxed at his farm today in the peaceful Pennsylvania countryside.

Possibly his fancy turned toward thoughts of politics as he gazed at the rural view.

But his official schedule was clear of important matters of state and party. He planned to spend the weekend taking it easy.

He thought about politics Friday, but only as a citizen. He registered as a Republican to vote in the November presidential elections.

No Prediction Made

However, he wasn't saying whose name he expected to find in the GOP column.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower, whose voting residence previously was New York, drove from their snow-covered farm to the old Adams County Courthouse in downtown Gettysburg.

They walked quickly through a crowd of 150 persons, including Pennsylvania GOP Sens. James H. Duff and Edward Martin, to the desk of County Clerk Clarence Smith.

The battery of cameras, floodlights, and reporters crowded around. Smith calmly asked the President:

"May I have your full name, please?"

"Dwight David Eisenhower," the President replied.

Address? (A quick check with Mrs. Eisenhower) "Rural delivery route two."

A Thoughtful Pause

Occupation? "Well, I am an ex-soldier." A thoughtful pause "I am the President, I guess."

Place of birth? "Denison, Tex."

Height? "Five feet 10 1/2 inches."

Color of eyes? "Blue."

Color of hair? This drew a big laugh from the balding President. "I guess it is brown."

Party affiliation? "Republican." (Again a slight pause.) "Maybe I should have shouted that."

Report of Offer To Buy Vote May Defeat Gas Bill

Senate Leaders Worried About Sen. Case Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of the natural gas bill feared today its chances of passage were hurt by a charge that someone tried to buy a senator's vote.

Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.) charged Friday an attorney offered him $2,500 for his campaign fund on the assumption he would vote for the bill.

The party-splitting measure would lift federal price controls on gas sold by producers. It was scheduled to come up for a vote Monday.

Previously confident Senate leaders went into hurried huddles in an attempt to work out a strategy to save the bill. Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.), author of the House-approved bill, frankly admitted Senate leaders are concerned.

Fulbright told a reporter that Case's charge "could influence" the outcome of the measure in the Senate.

"I have seen elections swung in such a manner by such last-minute charges which are later retracted," Fulbright said.

The Case disclosure put every senator who planned to vote for the bill on a spot. As Fulbright put it: "As it stands now, anyone who votes for this bill is now suspected of having received such a campaign contribution."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) and Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) who favor the bill, scheduled secret meetings later today to determine some way to get the senators off the spot.

Case made it plain that he has no intention of divulging the lawyer's name—despite the urgings of Senate leaders.

Case said his position is that he should give the man "the benefit of doubt." He said he did not know specifically whom the lawyer represents, but added "there is no reason to doubt he represents the proponents of the bill."

Case made his charge from the Senate floor during the last day of scheduled debate on the bill.

Carrier Mills Lions Club Honors Eight Charter Members

The Carrier Mills Lions club observed its 20th anniversary Monday, Jan. 30, with eight charter members in attendance.

The charter members—Cressie Holmes, Parrish Miller, Carl Harris, Loren P. Dallas, Freeman Pankey, Clyde O'Keefe, John Harris and Dr. W. E. Williams—were presented 20 year pins and received mail congratulations from officers of Lions International.

The pins were presented by the club president, Morse Hill.

Dr. Williams, now a resident of Marion, was the club's first president and returned to Carrier Mills Monday night for the anniversary observation. He has remained active in Lions club activities since leaving Carrier Mills.

The Lions club, organized by C. W. "Runt" Bishop, has spearheaded many civic improvements in Carrier Mills.

A club spokesman, in reviewing the club activities, mentioned the water works system, free parking lot in the business district, street markers, school improvements, upkeep of the Salem cemetery among the club's completed projects.

A program to gravel many of the streets a few years ago was pushed to completion by the Lions—the first uniforms for the high school band was made possible by the club and the first lunch program in the grade school was also a Lions club project, it is reported.

At the present time the club is completing a park on the blacktop road, about a mile from the city limits and its members are active in obtaining right of way for a proposed road improvement program that would connect Route 45 and the new Mitchellville highway.

There are 27 active members on the Lions club rolls, President Hill reports.

Dr. G. B. Hart Still Uses Inscripting Talent Which Helped Pay Way Through College

A practice engaged in by Dr. G. B. Hart to help him pay his way through college is still used by the Harrisburg physician as a beneficial hobby.

Dr. Hart is one of the few persons these days with talents as a fine inscriber with pen and ink. He writes with flourish and embellishments and when he has finished, the result is a beautiful script.

Dr. Hart was graduated from medical school at Valparaiso university at Valparaiso, Ind. It was while taking his pre-medical work that a fellow student, from Carbondale, got him interested in fine penmanship.

Young Hart took up the Spencerian system of penmanship in his pre-medical college days. Then he and his friend went into the business of inscribing names on small cards, which they sold for a quarter a dozen. They even made the county fairs and other gatherings penning and selling cards with people's names on them—or anything else they might want written in fine penmanship. They'd make themselves around two dollars a day.

But since those days in college he has carried on his hobby strictly for pleasure, not taking a dime for any of his work.

However, after he got out of school he took another system of penmanship—the Tamblin system—which he said is a bit more fancy than the Spencerian method. This was a mail-order course in writing. He uses special Tamblin pens and ink.

For years Dr. Hart has inscribed 200 or 300 Christmas cards in his best Tamblin style, but in recent years he hasn't penned as many.

"I can't write like I once did," he declared. "I get too nervous now."

However, he does get considerable work from the Masonic, Odd Fellows and Eastern Star lodges. Most of the writing is done in the Bibles of these organizations. Dr. Hart is a past master of Harrisburg Lodge 325, A. F. & A. M.

Right now he is engaged in inscribing the names of the past worthy matrons and past worthy officers of the Order of Eastern Star. Dr. Hart spoke highly of Kelly Mitchell of Dorrisville.

"He's real good," Dr. Hart stated. "He's not as nervous as I am and could do a fine job. I'm 73 years old now."

Dr. Hart was born in Pope county but was reared at Mitchellville, where two brothers, R. S. Hart and James Hart, reside. He taught six terms in country schools, where he was fond of penmanship, then went off to become a doctor.

Returning, he practiced medicine 11 years at Mitchellville, from 1913 to 1924, was at Raleigh one year, and has been practicing here since that time.

Back around 1919 Dr. Hart spent a lot of time with music. He taught 24 terms of singing school and also collaborated with T. B. Holloway of Edwille in writing a book of songs titled "Beautiful Songs."

All the songs in the book were of religious nature. He explained that both wrote words and both wrote music to the songs, that they wrote all the songs in the book except just a few. One of these was written by Claude V. Parsons of Golconda, then a school teacher and later congressman from this district.

Several thousand of these books were sold, the books being used in churches and singing schools.

OIL REPORT: Fast-Growing Area in Galatia Township Is Continuing as County's Hot-Spot

Taken from the Robertson Tri-State Oil Report

A continuing hot-spot in Saline county is the fast-growing area in Galatia township six miles north-west of Harrisburg.

The discovery well, the T. G. Lewis No. 1, SE SW NW, 15-38-5e, was drilled by Delwood Oil in December, flowing 200 barrels of oil a day from the Aux Vases at 2833-72.

Portis, Ingle and Caddick initiated the Claude Hefflin, SW NW NW, 15-38-5e, flowing 330 barrels of oil and 70 barrels of water a day from the Aux Vases at 2839-36 and 2888-89.

Delwood has now completed the Lewis No. 2, NW SW NW, 15-38-5e, with a flow gauge of 150 barrels of oil a day from the Aux Vases at 2861-78 and 2888-2900.

The Northwest Diagonal offset to this well—the Phillips Petroleum's Noble No. 1-A, SE NE NE, 16-8-5e, gassed to the surface in seven minutes and flowed oil in 40 minutes with a formation fracture of 1186 pounds on a drill stem test of the Aux Vases at 2845-99.

Also in this area Delwood awaited cable tools to test the Aux Vases at 2886-2909 at its Ryan No. 1, NE SE NE, 16-8-5e, and E. F. Moran was drilling past 1317 at its Robert C. Tuttle No. 1, NW SW NW, 13-38-5e, about two miles east of the other production. The Tuttle operation is an interesting Wildcat test that bears watching.

In Harrisburg township E. E. Goad's Frank P. Parker No. 2, 315 feet north and 360 feet west of Delwood, has now completed the Lewis No. 2, NW SW NW, 15-38-5e, with a flow gauge of 150 barrels of oil a day from the Aux Vases at 2861-78 and 2888-2900.

He had planned a number of talks for Farm and Home Week at the university. Papers he had prepared for the speeches were read for him by friends.

Identify Gunman In Phoenix Hotel Holdup as Irvin

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A gunman who robbed a Phoenix hotel of $200 was identified by a bystander as being Leslie Irvin, alleged "Chinese executioner" and Indiana jail escapee, police said today.

Officers said Carl Lang, a guest at the Desert Sun Hotel which was robbed Friday night, was shown photographs of Irvin and said he was positive the robber and the escapee were the same man.

Desk clerk Calvin Nelson, however, said he could not say whether the man who held him up was Irvin.

Irvin escaped Jan. 19 from a Princeton, Ind., jail where he was awaiting the death penalty for the murder of an Evansville, Ind., filling station attendant. He also was accused of killing five other persons in "Chinese execution" style by forcing them to kneel and shooting them in the back of the head.

The gunman entered the plush hotel here about 10 p. m. and ordered the clerk to hand over money from the cash drawer at the front desk. He fled on foot.

Detective Lt. Clem Hoyt said other leads indicating Irvin was in Arizona had proved false.

S. A. Pittman, 81, Of Galatia Dies

Seben A. Pittman, 81, retired coal miner residing in Galatia, died Friday night in the Pearce hospital in Eldorado. He was last employed at Harco mine.

Funeral services will be Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Pleasant Hill church northeast of Thompsonville. Rev. Henry Barger of Golconda will officiate assisted by Rev. William Fuson of Harrisburg. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

He leaves his wife, Sarah, and two daughters, Mrs. B. Allen, Galatia, and Mrs. Gladys Woolard, Harrisburg.

The body will be taken from the Courtney funeral home in Galatia to the residence this afternoon to be in state.

Eisenhower to Consider Some Changes

Knowland, Bridges Lead Protests on Trade in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has turned down British Prime Minister Anthony Eden's proposal for sizeable relaxation of curbs on Allied trade with Red China, diplomatic officials disclosed today.

Informed sources said although President Eisenhower argued against a major change in Allied trade controls, he agreed to look over relaxation of trade in rubber, some light machine tools, small dynamos, thin metal sheets and some other commodities.

Informants said Eden got "something" but less than he had wanted on the trade issue. The results of the Eisenhower-Eden talks were described as a "compromise."

Eden left Washington Friday for Ottawa, Canada, en route home. He said his talks with the President had exceeded his hopes and had resulted in a "very wide range of agreement."

Mere mention of trade with Red China stirred up the Senate.

Diplomats said most of the "agreement" was for lower-level talks on the Middle East, trade and other issues.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) and other advocates of a tough Red trade policy immediately protested. Chairman Styles Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee said he hoped "this country is not going to fall for any such arguments or entreaties."

House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) said such a trade relaxation move would "put ourselves in even more precarious position."

Dr. Norton, U. I. Economist, Dies

Urbana, Ill. (AP)—Dr. Laurence J. Norton, 59, head of the University of Illinois' department of agricultural economics, died here Friday.

The economist was stricken last week while on his way to Watseka to address a farm meeting. He was taken to Carle Memorial Hospital here.

Norton, a nationally known farm economist, helped organize the production credit association in the 1930's. He served with the U. S. Farm Credit Administration and the Production Credit Corp.

Except for two periods in federal service, Norton had been a faculty member since 1923, when he came to the U. of I. after teaching two years at Cornell University. He received his doctorate at Cornell.

Norton owned a 240-acre grain farm near Cissna Park.

He had planned a number of talks for Farm and Home Week at the university. Papers he had prepared for the speeches were read for him by friends.

Court Decision Paves Way for Evansville Station

WASHINGTON—Decisions by the United States Court of Appeals today paved the way for Evansville Television, Inc., to proceed full-speed with construction of a Channel 7 television station at Evansville, Ind.

The court denied two petitions seeking to prevent view by the corporation of an FCC construction permit for the station.

The three judges split 2-1 in ruling that Premier Television, Inc., and Ohio Valley Television Co. were not entitled to their requested stay. They were unanimous in rejecting the petition of Mid-America Broadcasting Corp.

The court said its reasons for denying the stays would be set forth in memoranda later.

Dr. E. F. Shepp, spokesman for Evansville Television, said the VIF station will be built on Harmony Way just west of Mesker Zoo. He said no date had been set for construction but "we will proceed just as quickly as possible."

Farmers' Income Shows Slight Gain, But Costs Also Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers
got a little more money for their products last month, but they had to spend all their gain to pay for higher production costs.

The Agriculture Department's
monthly report showed prices
farmers received went up 1 per cent for the month ended Jan. 15.
But their production costs, sparked by higher prices for feeder livestock and substantial advances in taxes and interest, also rose 1 per cent.

The resulting parity ratio thus remained unchanged from last month at 80 per cent.

Farm prices still are 7 per cent
below those of a year ago.

Parity is a legal formula for measuring the farmer's prosperity
against that of the rest of the economy. When the farmer gets 100 per cent of parity, he is said to be getting a fair return in relation to his living and operating costs.

The increase in the index of prices received stemmed from
higher prices for meat animals,
tender vegetables, strawberries,
and potatoes. The average price of live hogs on Jan. 15 was $10.90
per 100 pounds, up 30 cents from Dec. 15. The average beef cattle price was $13.90, up 40 cents from a month earlier. Calf prices were up an average of 90 cents, lambs 60 cents, and sheep 27 cents.

Dairy calves need about a pound of salt in every 100 pounds of grain mixtures.

4-H Vows Year Round Safe Driving

More than two million 4-H boys and girls have tied a string around their finger that may save their lives.
Sparked by the eight top 4-H safety winners of General Motors
college scholarships, these vigorous teenagers have promised President Eisenhower to constantly remind themselves to make every day "Safe Driving Day."

And he, in congratulating them, declared that "4-H Club members can contribute much in their own driving and in their influence with others toward this goal."

The national winners met newsmen in Chicago at the 34th National 4-H Club Congress to which they and 33 other state 4-H Farm and Home Safety winners received all-expense trips from GM.

Urge Better Roads and Better Highways

"Traffic carelessness is the number one danger in farm areas just as in the city," they agreed. "The highway death toll can be cut only if we insist on better roads and better driver training to keep pace with today's better cars."

A typical national winner was Frankie Keith, 17 of Frederick, Oklahoma, who has been broadcasting a 15 minute traffic safety program over a local radio station for the past two years.

"I urge everyone to practice Christian driving," she said. "Let's put the Golden Rule to work on America's Highways."

Keep Community Accident Conscious

Other national scholarship winners are Clifton Benton, 17, Covington, Ga.; Leo S. Mann, 18, Otterbein, Ind.; Carl W. Bond, 18, Colfax,
Iowa; La Donna Dirks, 17, Dodge City, Kansas; Mary Burwell
Davis, 18, Warren, N. C.; Clayton Senecal, 15, Rutland, Vt.; and Peggy J. Hansen, 17, Luck, Wyo.

Nine times more 4-H youths are active in safety work today than when General Motors first became awards donor for the program 11 years ago. Leaders expect this "safety army" to continue growing

Returns Exceed Costs in Rehabilitation Of Area Hardwood Forests, Survey Shows

CARBONDALE, Ill.—The average hardwood forest in southern Illinois and adjacent regions may be rehabilitated at considerably
less cost than the returns from products removed. At the same time, the improved timber land
will increase its productivity.

That is the report of Leon S.
Minckler, silviculturist in the Carbondale U. S. Forest Research Center at Southern Illinois university, and Benjamin A. Roach, former superintendent of the Kaskaskia Experimental Forest, Hardin county,
which is attached to the Center.
Their observations are featured in an article in a recent issue of the Southern Lumberman, a trade journal.

From cost records kept for five years on study areas in the Kaskaskia Experimental Forest they found that the rehabilitation job
cost $15.50 per thousand board
feet of saw logs delivered at roadside. The per acre yield of saw-timber averaged nearly 2,000 board feet.

Data Compiled

Costs were: 800 per thousand
board feet for felling and bucking logs, using a chain saw; $5.00 per thousand for skidding logs to the roadside with crawler tractor and skidder; $1.00 per acre to mark trees
for cutting or killing; and $2.30
per acre for ax-grubbing cull trees.

The data were compiled from records on 22 forest study compartments containing a total of 420 acres of timber. Every tree 4.5
inches in diameter or larger was measured and tallied. The stands contained a per-acre average of 39 sawtimber trees (10.6 inches in diameter or larger) and 94
pole-size trees.

Nearly half of these were considered suitable for growing stock.
Ten percent of the sawtimber trees
and 18 percent of the pole-size trees were unsalable culls. The remainder were considered mer-chantable but mostly of low grade.

SIU Country Column

By Albert Meyer

Farmers with hogs to market
cannot be happy about the current price of pork on the hoof. At present the chances of realizing a profit are slim. A major factor determining whether or not the hog producing farmer obtains a profit is good management. In fact, good management in all phases of farming is a necessity in this day of high production costs and relatively low prices for commodities produced if the farmer is to keep his operation out of the red.

Farrowing time is one important
spot in management for swine producers. Involved are timing, feeding, and mortality.

The chief consideration in timing the farrowing period is to have the litters arrive so that pigs may be finished for market at the time of year when prices normally are highest. Usually this is during late Summer. Consequently swine producers plan for later winter pigs. The farmer who is able to manage his swine herd so as to farrow pigs between late January
and early March has some advantages in hitting the market at opportunity times.

Providing sows with balanced rations designed for developing
strong litters and keeping the pigs
in good condition while pigs are in the suckling period is a desirable management practice. Involved, of course, is the selection of parents with records for producing large, fast-growing litters of pigs. Specialists say that of pigs weighing one and one-half pounds
at birth only 13 in 100 live to weaning age. On the other hand, 86 out of 100 pigs weighing three and one-half pounds at birth will live
to weaning age.

Saving every pig in the litter at farrowing is an important management problem. Any farmer giving it a thought will realize that he has a fixed cost invested in each litter at birth. What that cost is will depend on expenses for feed,
housing, labor, and the investment
in hogs.

Here are a few illustrative figures from the specialists.

The feed required by a sow varies little whether she farrows five pigs or 10. The feed cost at weaning for a litter of five is nearly $10 per pig (based on a feed cost of 3 1/2 cents per pound for sow and litter). For a litter of 10 pigs the per-pig feed cost would be only slightly more than $5.00.

The farmer cannot realize a profit from his hogs unless he can market more than five pigs from each litter. He breaks even if he can get five from the litter to marketing size. If the record is less than that he is paying money out of his pocket for the fun of producing hogs.

The obvious objective, therefore,
is to obtain a large litter and to save every pig. At least half the loss of pigs may be eliminated by providing proper farrowing facilities so that the sow does not lie down on the pigs. Most overlying occurs because pigs are cold and want to huddle in the sow's own bed for warmth.

Today there is available a variety of information on constructing simple farrowing crates in the hog shelter to eliminate much of the problem of overlying new born pigs. The present availability of electricity on the farm makes it simple and relatively inexpensive
to provide the warmth to keep pigs
from chilling even during cold winter days.

The aim in using farrowing
crates is to place heat lamps so as to provide the little pigs with a warm bed outside the sow's bed
and yet give them access to the mother hog for nursing.

Light Up Your Farmstead

Are you walking around in the dark? A darkened farmstead, that is.

R. W. Kleis, agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says a good lighting system, properly located and controlled, can add to the safety, convenience and appearance of your farmstead.

You can use several kinds of light fixtures to advantage out of doors. For instance, a shallow dome reflector is good for mounting on a central yard pole. Use a 200- or 300-watt frosted lamp in the reflector. An angle reflector
with a 200-watt lamp will work
better than the dome on the side of a high building.

A standard dome reflector makes an ideal fixture for lighting the working area in front of a farm shop or machine shed, according to the engineer. The PAR-38 reflector does a good job of lighting
porches or building entrances.
Mount it at least 10 feet above the ground.

A portable floodlight makes a good "trouble light" for a variety of outdoor uses.

The control system is also important. Have enough switches, and locate them conveniently. If a yard light has a number of
widely separated control points,
you may want to use a remote control system.

You can see what the various reflectors look like and what they can do for you by writing to the Department of Agricultural Engineering in Urbana for illustrated Leaflet No. 5, "Let's See About the Farmstead."

FROM GLORY TO A FOOT REST—These two prize cows ought to be somewhat indignant, being used as foot and head rests. But they seem to be taking it in stride as their owner, Glen Adams of Crawford County, Pa., grabs a short snooze between "acts" of the 40th Annual Farm Show at Harrisburg, Pa.

(A round-up of the week's work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois
Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbins in southern Illinois, prepared by the Station's staff.)

Silage Sorghums
Aside from the usual chores,
winter at the Station is a time for summary work. It is a time when we learn the results of experimental work done the previous summer. The summary work on sorghum variety trials has been completed. Twenty forage and grain sorghums were tested. The eight silage or forage varieties tried were Norkan, Ellis, Axtell, Kansas Orange, Early Sumac, Rox Orange, Leoti Red Cane and Atlas.

Forage yields were figured on an oven-dried basis. On this basis
the four top yielders and their yields of dry matter in pounds per acre were Early Sumac 6900, Kansas Orange 6500, Atlas 6100 and Axtell 6000.

Grain yields were also obtained
and it was found that of the four,
Atlas was high with 31 bushels per acre and Early Sumac was low with 24 bushels. At first glance
we would be inclined to select Atlas because of the higher grain
yield, feeling that a trade of 400
pounds of grain for 800 pounds of dry matter is a good trade. And pound for pound the feeding value
of Atlas silage would be higher than Early Sumac silage. But on the basis of total digestible nutrients produced on an acre, there is little difference between the two.

We did, however, find a great
difference between the two in stalk strength. Early Sumac stood very well. Atlas went down and lodged badly. So, on the basis of this trial,
our choice would be Early Sumac.

Lamb Feeding
Winter summary work has also turned up some interesting things about lamb feeding. It has revealed a system which requires less labor than hand feeding and gets the lambs to choice and prime grades faster at about the same feed cost.

This is how it was done. The first day on feed a self feeder filled with soybean oil meal was put before the lambs and kept before them throughout the feeding period. Bright, leafy alfalfa hay was constantly available. The lambs were hand fed shelled corn
twice daily at the rate of 1.3 of a pound per day for the first three days. On each successive three-day-period the daily corn ration
was increased by 1.3 of a pound
until the lambs were on full feed
by the 16th day. On the 16th day
a self feeder was filled with shelled corn and the lambs helped themselves.

Clark Soybean Seed Recommended For Southern Illinois

Harosoy and Clark are two names to keep in mind when you buy soybean seed this spring.

Harosoy is a new, early-maturing, high-yielding soybean variety
adapted well to the northern part of the state. C. M. Brown told a Farm and Home Week audience
here this week. Brown, assistant professor of agronomy at the College of Agriculture, says that Clark
is another new variety that is rapidly gaining favor in southern Illinois.

The frost-free growing season in Illinois varies from 160 days in the far north to 200 days in the extreme southern tip of the state, 385 miles away. A big factor in selecting a soybean variety is the time it takes to mature, Clark says.

The U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory recommends eight varieties for Illinois. They are, in the order of maturity (earliest first),
Blackhawk, Harosoy, Hawkeye,
Adams, Lincoln, Clark, Wabash
and Perry.

An ounce of rabbit repellent may save partial or total destruction of some valuable trees or shrubs.

290 EGGS per HEN

New All-time State Record with
DEKALB CHIX

In Missouri, a DEKALB
flock averaged 290 eggs
for Ernest Schnetzler at Salisbury, establishing a NEW, high record in the University of Missouri's
Extension Poultry Record Keeping Program.
Schnetzler housed 185
birds, and lost ONLY 7
birds during the year
ending August 31, 1955,
(3 from moulting feed.)

OTHER TESTS SHOW DEKALB CHIX SUPERIORITY

DEKALB CHIX won the first Texas Random Sample test with the earliest maturity, the highest egg production and the best adult livability. In the 6th California Random Sample test, DEKALB birds averaged 267 eggs per pullet (Hen-Day Basis), and 271 eggs per pullet (Hen-Day Basis)
in the 6th California Random Sample Test. In the Kansas Poultry Flock Improvement Project Sept. 1, 1954 thru Aug.
30, 1955, DEKALB CHIX took first in the Hatcher Breeder flock division with 271 eggs average per bird, and first in the Farm Flock division with 270 eggs average per bird.

After its showing in Chicago, it will join auto-mobile shows in Cleveland, Omaha, Milwaukee, Detroit and Kansas City. It will then be displayed in large and small cities throughout the country.

Four Killed as Fire Destroys Farm Home

SOLON SPRINGS, Wis. (AP)—Four persons, including three children, were killed early today in a farm home fire near this northern Wisconsin community. Victims were identified as Cecil Grover, 52, and three children of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shaw—Julia, 12, Johnny, 9, and Anna, 3. The children's parents were in Eau Claire, Wis., attending the funeral of a friend.

The Shaw farm home, 6 1/2 miles west of here, was burned to the ground by the blaze, which apparently started from an overheated wood stove. The fire broke out shortly after 1 a. m.

Pankeyville Baptist W.M.S. Holds Monthly Program

Mrs. Ruth Gates was hostess Thursday evening to the W.M.S. of the Pankeyville Baptist church. Mrs. Gates presided over the meeting which opened with the song, "Trust and Obey." Roll call was answered with a scripture verse. The devotion was given by Mrs. Alta Norman.

Reports were given by various chairmen. The W.M.S. voted to pay two dollars on the slide projector for the Saline Association.

The program entitled "God Save America" was given by Mrs. Nancy Sadler, Mrs. Fern Waddell, Mrs. Hattie Moyer and Mrs. Blanch Lauderdale.

Judy Garland Seeks Divorce

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Judy Garland gave the gate in a divorce suit to the man responsible for her comeback because, friends said today, she was upset over husband Sid Luft's money problems.

The singer added another unhappy event to her troubled life
Friday when she moved out of the couple's home while Luft was at work and filed the suit in Santa Monica Superior Court.

Judy packed her three children and moved in with friends. She was not available to comment on the action that caught movietown
by surprise.

Luft did not know his famous wife left him until informed by United Press.

"I don't believe it. It can't be true," he said, sounding stunned.
"I just got home from the office.
The couple was married three and one-half years ago. The divorce suit listed their separation date as Friday. Miss Garland seeks custody of their two children and said no settlement of community
property had been made.

Springfield Woman To Direct Downstate Group for Sachs

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Blanche Fritz, Springfield, has been named to direct a downstate women's organization for Morris B. Sachs, who is backing the regular Democratic organization in his quest for the party's nomination for governor.

Mrs. Fritz was state chairman of the women's division of the Democratic State Committee for 20 years.

Sachs promised a "new look" in state government if he is elected governor. He spoke to a volunteer Women's Committee for Sachs in Chicago Friday.

Sachs said he was disturbed over the "steadily increasing number and amount of taxes."
"We are being taxed to death,"
he said.

Billy Graham Holds Service in Hotel Lobby at 6 a. m. for Missionaries

By GEORGE BURNHAM
Chattanooga News-Free Press
Staff Writer

MADRAS, India — The hotel
lobby was in the process of coming to life. It was 6 a. m. The desk clerk was sleepy. Indian porters
were shuffling about in their white trousers and tough bare feet.

Billy Graham, the American
evangelist on tour of the Far East, strolled into the lobby. He had to catch an early plane to fill his busy schedule.

Four ladies, three white and one Indian, were standing off to one side. They approached Billy rather nervously and introduced themselves as missionaries, one from Canada, and one from Great Britain. They had come from the Poona District, several hundred miles away.

"We rode an old broken-down
train for two days to hear you speak," one said, "but it had engine trouble and did not arrive in time. Would you give us a brief message now that we might take
it back to our people?"

She told Billy that a Sunday School class, composed of aged women and named the House of Peace, had been praying for many months that God would bless his meetings in India.

"They told their extra rice and sent 10 rupees (about $2) to help pay expenses of the meetings,"
she said.

New Gulf Storm Hits Texas; Causes 17 Deaths

By United Press
A storm centered over the Gulf Coast today whipped Texas again
with snow and freezing rain and unleashed thunderstorms eastward
to the Atlantic Coast.

Some letup was forecast for the Texas panhandle which experienced its worst winter storm with 10-
foot snow drifts piling up on an 11-inch snowfall.

The blowing snow and cold,
blamed for 17 deaths in Texas and New Mexico, nearly trapped 100
or more persons near Plainview, Tex., Friday night. Only quick rescue efforts by the National Guard and highway patrolmen prevented motorists, truckers and bus
passengers from becoming stranded
in sub-freezing temperatures.

The National Guard used trucks
to bring the travelers to safety
after the record snow bogged down
about 75 automobiles, three buses
and several trucks a few miles outside the city limits.

The storm disrupted some communications, closed many schools
and made travel nearly impossible
nearly two-thirds of the state the past three days.

More than 13 inches of snow was on the ground at Carlsbad, N. M.
Herds of valuable cattle were threatened on the open range and schools had to close.

Forty-eight-hour rains to the northeast brought on by the storm
caused about 100 families to flee
from their homes along the forked river at Dyersburg, Tenn. Flood warnings were posted at Fayetteville, Shelbyville and Knoxville, Tenn.

Generally fair weather prevailed
over most of the rest of the nation.

Set Up College Credit Courses On Radioactivity

CHICAGO (AP)—The Illinois civil defense office reported today that several Illinois institutions are setting up college credit courses in how to detect radioactivity.

Gen. Robert M. Woodward, state civil defense director, said the courses in radiological monitoring
will be offered at Northwestern, Illinois, Chicago, De Paul, Bradley, Millikin, Chicago Teachers College, Lyons High School, and Chicago junior high schools.

Woodward also reported that a conference recently was held at Southern Illinois university
"launching statewide radiological
training of high school science
teachers."

Woodward said the federal civil defense agency has equipment
available for use in local civil defense courses on radiological detection.

Just a Corpse at Twilight

By Robert Martin

THE STORY: James Bennett, investigator for the State Industrial Welfare Commission, is trying to obtain permission for an autopsy on Frank Osborn, who died six months before. Coroner Dick Jarrett, who also was Osborn's physician, objects to an autopsy.

V
Mrs. Frank Osborn answered the phone in a voice that could be either middle-aged or young, just a soft female voice, neither husky nor shrill, a voice saying, "Hello," quietly, waiting with mild anticipation to learn who was on the line.

"Mrs. Osborn?"

"Yes."

"I'm sorry to bother you at this hour, but—"

"Oh, you're not bothering me. I'm waiting for some friends to call for me."

"Yes, you see, Mrs. Osborn—"

"If you're the man about the house insurance I've decided to renew again for another three years. If you will mail me a statement I'll send you a check."

"My name is Bennett and I'm with the Industrial Welfare Commission." She said something, but I went on determinedly. "We'd like your permission to do an autopsy on the body of your husband."

For maybe 20 seconds there was silence on the wire. Then she said faintly, "Autopsy? On Frank? Why?"

"The commission feels it's necessary, in fairness to all concerned, to establish the cause of death."

"But the doctor said Frank died of a heart attack."

I said carefully, "Mrs. Osborn, it will be merely a medical examination, a routine matter, conducted with the utmost respect. The commission feels that there is a reasonable cause for doubt, and—"

"I don't understand, Mr. Bennett."

Mrs. Osborn's voice was nice, but she had an annoying habit of interrupting. "You see, if we establish that your husband's death
resulted from the industrial disease from which he suffered for three years, and not from the heart condition as stated on

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Robert Bainbridge, my father, who left us 8 years ago on Feb. 4, and who left us all so sad and lonely:

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days,
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
A beautiful memory he left behind.

He had a nature you could not help loving,
A heart that was purer than gold
And to me, who knew and loved him,
His memory will never grow cold.

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. John J. Sparkman said today Republicans must accept the fact that President Eisenhower's health will be a campaign issue if he seeks a second term.

The Alabama senator, 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, made the statement in commenting on remarks by former President Truman at New York Thursday night.

In a clear reference to Mrs. Eisenhower's health, Mr. Truman said Democrats would give the country a chance to vote for a president—"not a regency or a part-time chairman of the board."

"The Republicans might as well get it into their heads that it won't be kept out as an issue," Sparkman told a reporter. "They might as well get used to it."

He added significantly that Mr. Eisenhower has "shown that he's thinking about it himself."

BIRTH OF AN ANGEL

They call her an angel of mercy. And they mean it! Just ask the ones who have depended on her in a time of fear and pain.

How did she become an angel of mercy? Was she born to be a nurse... or did she just happen to decide that would be a good profession?

She decided. But she didn't just happen to decide! It grew within her—this yearning to help others.

It began one day in church school. Was it the lesson of the Good Samaritan—or one of the others? The idea thrived on many an inspiring sermon. Then one day it became a conviction... something to pray about... to plan for.

Today she is a wonderful nurse. Tomorrow she'll be a loving wife... an understanding mother. You see, she's not unusual, this girl. She is simply a girl whose Church helped her find God's challenge in her life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Jesus Teaches Gratitude'

Luke 17:11-19
GOLDEN TEXT: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High." (Psalm 92:1)

INTRODUCTION: Ingratitude is one of the evils eating at the foundations of society today. Being ungrateful for blessings bestowed is not only disgraceful but actually sinful. The problems usually center in the home. Ungrateful hankers parents produce children of that same nature. Recently some Christian women go together to do some community mission work. Among those that they decided they could help was a family with some small children. This family, especially the children, needed help. The ladies prepared a large box of food and some much needed clothing for the children. When two of the ladies knocked on the door of the home, the ungrateful man called out, "come in." When they opened the door and entered the home, neither the husband nor the wife arose from their chairs. He saw the bundles and said: "Put them over there on the table; we'll open them after awhile." To this day neither he nor his wife have said even as much as "thank you" to those ladies. Jesus has something to say about such ungratefulness.

TEN LEPROUS (VV. 11-13)
Leprosy is a dread disease. It begins in a small way when the ends of the nerves at a given point in the body begin to die. The flesh rots and drops from the bones. The afflicted person literally dies by degrees.

Leprosy separates the individual from loved ones and society. The one afflicted must leave loved ones and go to a place provided for lepers.

Sin is compared to leprosy in the Bible. Sin is a dread disease of the soul. It begins in a small way when subtle temptation deadens the conscience. The soul literally dies by degrees.

Sin separates the individual from God and loved ones who know Christ as personal Saviour. Sin causes persons to have to go to a place, after death, provided for the rejector of Christ.

The ten lepers in this portion of Scripture "stood afar off." They were compelled to do so by law. When they saw Jesus, their hearts were filled with hope, and they cried: "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."

THE CLEANSING (V. 14)
"As they went they were cleansed." This is always true. Naaman would never have been cured of his leprosy if he had not dipped seven times in the River Jordan, as he was directed to do by God's prophet.

Additional Church Notes On Page Three

et. The Prodigal Son would never have received abundant entrance into his father's household, if he had not "arose and gone back to his father."

Jesus told these ten lepers what to do. "As they went they were cleansed." You can find salvation when you obey God and come to Christ. You will be cleansed as you go forth to do God's will.

III ONE OF TEN GAVE THANKS (VV. 15-16)

Out of the ten that were blessed by being cleansed of their leprosy, only one returned to give thanks to Jesus. There are countless thousands of people who are just as ungrateful today. They accept food, clothing, health, wealth, home, jobs, cars and all other blessings, but never come to God and give thanks. Many people sit down to eat food in their homes, or elsewhere, and never bow their heads and thank God for the food. (Even a hog will grunt his thanks when you throw food to him.)

People get sick and would never get well if God did not make the cure possible. Many folks never give thanks to God for getting well.

How long since you told your pastor that you appreciate his ministry? How long since you encouraged your Sunday School teacher with a word of appreciation for his efforts? How long since you thanked your family doctor for being so kind? (A lady took time to write me a letter recently expressing appreciation for these lessons. It made me feel that the effort is worth-while.)

The man that returned to thank Jesus was doubly blessed. If you will look daily for opportunities to express appreciation to others, it will revolutionize your life.

CONCLUSION: (VV. 17-19)

"Thy faith hath made thee whole. What Jesus is really saying is: 'your faith has saved you.' Not only was he cleansed of his leprosy, but he was also cleansed of his sins and prepared for eternal life.

It is easy for God to bless people who are grateful. He cannot bless those who are ungrateful. Open your heart and practice being grateful daily, and you will open your life to blessings from God.

Bull Dogs Lose Close, 45-43, Tilt to Mt. Vernon

Rams Stall Out Final Seconds to Win; Locals Play at Rantoul Tonight

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, play- ing like thoroughbreds, had the Rams of Mt. Vernon on the run last night but the South Seven conference basketball leaders stalled a two-point lead for 29 seconds to finish on top, 45 to 43.

The Rams were overwhelming favorites in the contest but the Bull Dogs, who played Mt. Vernon a good game at Mt. Vernon last month, played even better in Dav- enport gym last night.

The Bull Dogs played a deliber- ate, precise offensive game and put up a fine defense against the Mt. Vernon severs to stay with the Rams all the way. They held a two-point lead with two minutes remaining and had a tie with 55 seconds left in the game.

Locals Take Early Lead
Harrisburg ran up a 14-9 lead in the first quarter as Ronnie Williams, Bull Dog center, contributed seven points, but the Rams managed to tie the count at the end of the first period, 14-14.

Still playing the deliberate, but not stalling, type of offense the second period the locals staved the Rams until the closing seconds when a basket by Mt. Ver- non's Jarrel Graham put the foe ahead, 24-22, at halftime.

Harrisburg got a bit less cau- tious in choosing its shots the third quarter, although the team didn't become wild, and got out- scored 11 to 7 to trail 35-29 as the fourth quarter started.

Bennie Fulkerson, Bull Dog guard, put the locals back in the ball game with three baskets in a row, two on steals and one on an outcourt shot. Ron Williams came through with a couple in a row and Harrisburg took the lead at 38-37 with four and a half min- utes left in the game.

Stall Out Clock
The count was tied at 39-39 be- fore Stone gave the locals a 41-39 lead. With two minutes left Don Williams, 6-4 Mt. Vernon center, connected with a field goal and two free throws to make the count 43-41 in favor of the opposition but Jack Wright went to the free throw line at 1:22 left and hit for two free throws to tie the count at 43-43. This held until only 55 seconds were left when Don Neal connected for Mt. Vernon to make the score 45-43.

After an unsuccessful attempt by Harrisburg, Mt. Vernon grabbed the ball with 29 seconds left and stalled out the clock.

The Harrisburg boys played their best ball of the year al- though they were handicapped by Mt. Vernon height. Mt. Vernon did a fine job of keeping Wayne Stone, Harrisburg scorer, from shooting, but Ronnie Williams came through with 15 points. Tony Beal and Ron Williams did a great defensive job under the bas- ket, too, and the locals did a fine job of working the ball around.

Statistics show that both teams made 16 field goals but the locals were outscored 13-11 at the free throw line—the difference. Both teams missed five free throws, both made 11 fouls.

In the preliminary game the Bull Pups bowed, 66-50. They trailed 25-15 at the half and 47-26 at the quarter, but put on a 24-point fourth quarter to make the score respectable. Two Bull Pup regulars, Mike Walker and Chuck Henshaw, both freshmen, did not play as they became lost to the team following semester exam- inations. Also, Coach Lawrence Calufetti of the Bull Dogs suited up Ray Hassett, top Pup player, and used him in the varsity game last night. This means Hassett will be ineligible for further frosh-soph play against South Seven conference teams.

Don Biggs was high scorer for the Pups with 12 points. Bob Clark had 10, Hassett, 9, Bill Yates, 6, Eddie Price and Ronnie Rauh 4 each, Don Pickford and Ronnie Maynard 2 each and Phillip Kane 1.

Today the Bull Dogs made the long jaunt to Rantoul, which is north of Champaign, for a game there tonight. Last year Rantoul came to Harrisburg and dropped a 10-point decision. The Fliers have practically the same team back this year, which includes a 6-6 center.

Norris City Trips Eldorado Eagles, 44-40

Eldorado dropped a ragged, but close, ball game at Norris City Fri- day night by a score of 44-40.

Neither team was up to par, missing numerous shots and fur- bling the ball many times.

Eldorado lost out at the free throw line, hitting only six and missing 11. Norris City connected 14 times in 21 attempts.

Eldorado's Watson was high man with 16. Johnson paced the winning Norris City club with 14 points.

Ted Williams Signs Contract For $100,000

BOSTON (U) — Ted Williams, the newly inked $100,000 contract in his pocket, served notice today that he plans a full season with the Boston Red Sox, spring train- ing included.

Williams, tanned, happy, and 15- pounds overweight, signed a one- year contract with Boston owner Tom Yawkey at Fenway Park Fri- day.

Both declined to mention the fig- ure in the contract but the big outfielder quipped: "I'm happy about it."

Williams said trimming down to his normal playing weight of 205 "wouldn't be hard" but he admit- ted he was going to take his time getting into shape.

Red Hot Prediction

Williams predicted the Sox — strengthened by the trade that brought first baseman Mickey Vernon and pitcher Bob Porter- field to Boston — could be "real hot this season."

He said the Boston club "played up to its peak last year" but that the trade with Washington and Boston's "youthfulness in pitch- ing" could make the Red Sox hard to beat.

Williams reported his injured left shoulder was "fine" and that he had no sensations whatever from a surgical pin in the injured joint.

This will be the first time in two years that Williams reported for spring training. Last year he joined the club in May.

With a full season in front of him Williams who hit .356 in 98 games last year, should be among the top contenders for batting honors in the American League.

Royals Defeat Warriors, 105-96; Play Celtics Today

The Rochester Royals jumped from last to second in the Western Division race of the National Bas- ketball Association with a 105-96 victory over the Philadelphia War- riors Friday night, but they'll have to be equally as good today when they meet Boston in a na- tionally televised game.

The Royals, led by rookie Mau- rice Stokes, who scored 29 points, rallied in the final period after trailing Philadelphia, 84-69, at the end of the third session to gain their victory. An 11-point rally put Rochester within striking dis- tance and then Stokes tossed in a jump shot with five minutes left to play to give Rochester a 90-89 lead.

A three-point play gave Phila- delphia the lead again, 92-90, but Stokes and Jack Twyman com- bined for nine successive points to ice the decision. Paul Arizin, the league's leading scorer, tossed in 31 to lead all scorers.

In today's other games, the New York Knickerbockers play host to the Syracuse Nationals and the St. Louis Hawks and Fort Wayne Pistons play at Elkhart, Ind.

Junior Hi Cagers Close Season, Enjoy Party

The Harrisburg Junior High school cagers closed their regular season Thursday night with a pair of victories over Benton and then enjoyed a party at the Midwest cafe.

In the seventh grade game Harrisburg held off Benton for a 34-33 decision and gave the team a 5-5 record for the season. Har- risburg led at the end of every period, 8-3, 17-9, 28-27 and the final 34-33. In action for the locals were Karnes, Utter, Roberson, Meler and Dunning.

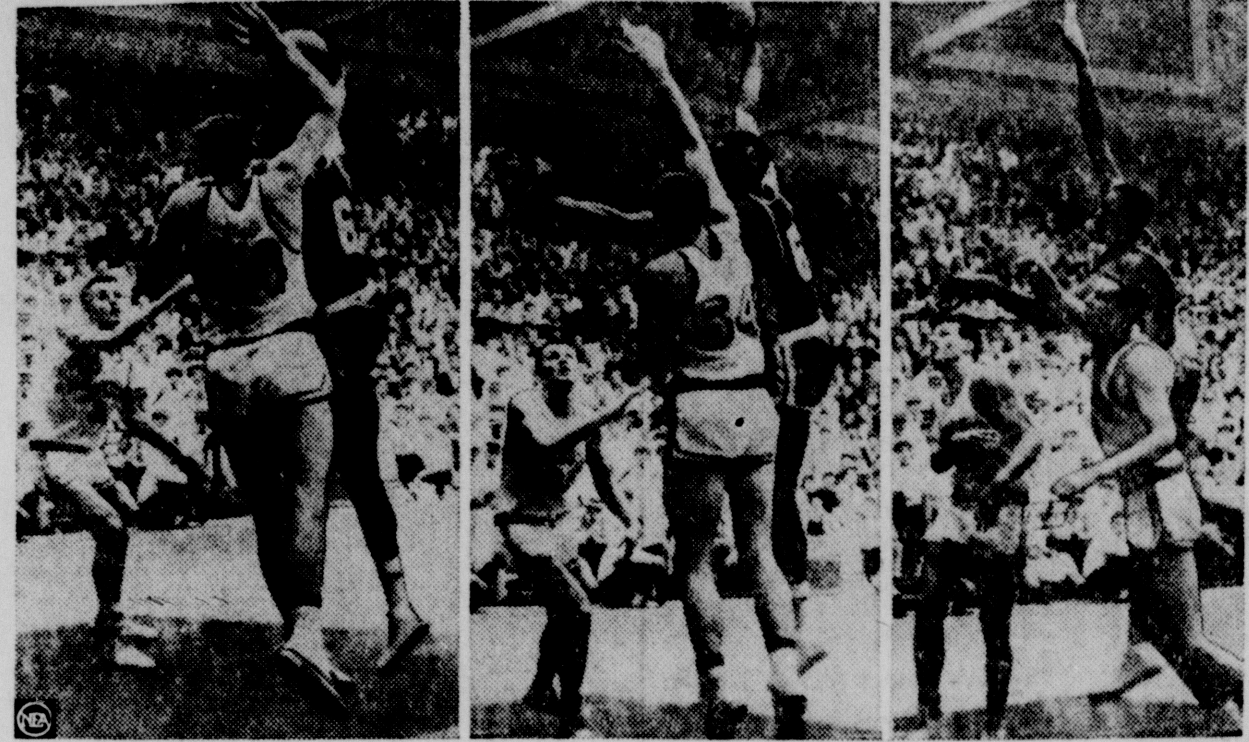

The eighth grade team made its season record 6-4 by winning 51-46. After trailing 11-6 at the quarter and 24-19 at halftime, Harrisburg went out in front 39-36 at the three quarter mark and went on to win 51-46. Playing for Harrisburg were Feazel, Henshaw, Kane, Hancock, Stone, Wise and Dono- van.

Following the game the players and cheerleaders were guests at a party at the Midwest cafe.

Hurricane Jackson Wins 10-Round Decision from Baker

NEW YORK (U) — Young Tom- my (Hurricane) Jackson, who licked Bob Baker by reverting to his own freakishly primitive style of raining leather, will get another heavyweight elimination bout next month with Johnny Holman.

Jackson of Far Rockaway, N. Y., tossed science into the bucket Friday night and fought like a nature-boy straight out of the jungle as he swarmed over Pitts- burg Bob and won a majority 10- round decision in their exciting TV-radio fight before 4,899 in Madison Square Garden.

WHAT GOES UP never seems to come down when Bill Russell of San Francisco bounces around. At left, Russell starts wheeling for a pivot shot as California defender goes up with him. Center, Russell is climbing as his opponent starts to come down. And at right, he's all alone, head and shoulders over the rest, as he follows through.

Shawneetown, Rosiclare, Vienna, Pope County Win Loop Contests

All teams in the Greater Egypt- ian conference engaged in loop action Friday night with Shawnee- town, Rosiclare, Vienna and Pope County entering the victory col- umn.

Unbeaten Shawneetown gathered its 23rd decision of the season to remain the "winningest" team in the state. The 23rd victim was Cave-in-Rock, bowing 74-57.

Visiting Vienna beat Galatia 69-59; Pope County, playing at home, romped past Equality, 92-49, and Rosiclare made its homecoming complete with an 88-64 decision over Ridgway.

Shawneetown experimented with a full court pressing game last night before home folks and made it work fairly successful against a deliberate Cave-in-Rock squad.

The Indians, a fast breaking team on offense, may shift to the full court press on defense for the re- mainder of the season Coach Val- ter stated this morning.

Once again Shawneetown showed a well balanced attack, with sev- en players scoring, five in double figures.

Fouling was the determining fac- tor in the Ridgway-at-Rosiclare game with the officials whistling 61 infractions—33 against Ridgway and 28 against Rosiclare.

Crayne, Ridgway's most effec- tive all-around performer, was lost by fouls within less than a minute after the third quarter started. In the half game, he collected 20 markers. Lawer stood out in re- bounding for Ridgway.

Ridgway lost a chance for vic- tory by failing at the free throw line, hitting only 18 in 41 tries.

McGuire collected 23 points to lead Rosiclare to victory.

In the preliminary game Rosi- clare also was the victor, 82-75, but Ballard of Ridgway displayed a good scoring game with 25 mark- ers.

Brady, with 18 points, sparked Vienna to its 69-59 victory at Ga- latia.

The winners got away to a fast

Rock Island upset Moline 82-70 and Aurora East surprised Elgin 80-78 in games on a heavy Illinois high school basketball card Friday night.

Moline had a 13-3 mark and was ranked as the third best team in the state before the Rock Island defeat. Rock Island had an 11-5 record and was ranked 14th by the United Press Board of Coaches. Rock Island had lost to Moline 63-47 Dec. 16.
